STEAM ALBUM 3

3.30 p.m., 14 December 1959. 3524 accelerates out of Sydney No. 1 platform with the North West Mail in one of 54 full-page photos in "Steam Album - Third Division", the NSW Rail Transport Museum's latest publication.

Other photos of steam at work on the railways of New South Wales during the past 30 years include:

- * 1311 about to leave Mittagong with a loop line mixed.
- * 2016 steaming to Camden in 1944.
- * 2531 at Cowra.
- * 3501 and 5229 double-heading goods north of Nambucca.
- * 3613 southbound on the Albury Mail.
- * 5163 bringing in sugar on the Murwillumbah line.
- * 5723 stamping out of Gib tunnel.

This third album in what has become the Museum's most popular type of publication is printed on fine art paper and features a colour cover. We believe it to be very good value at $1.35 including postage, packing and a special surcharge for steam retention.

Why not use this handy order form now?
